

POETRY.

From the N. Y. Mirror.
HOME AT LAST.
A shivering child, one winter's night, (The snow was deep, and cold the blast) Lugging her ragged mother tight, "Mother!" exclaimed, "we're home at last!"

And as she spoke, poor little one,
A ruinous hut she stood before, Whence, ever since the morning sun, They stayed—to beg from door to door.

"We're home at last! Sad home is this—All torn without, all cold within;
The adder here might lurk and hiss, Her poisonous web the spider spin—But there's no fire to warm, nor light;
And crevices are yawning wide, Through which the storm, this freezing night, May lay you stiffened side by side.

And yet this wayward child has been By many a gorgeous house—and past Where mirth and music cheer the scene, Nor envies—for she's home at last!
Thus may the heart be trained below To love the cot whereon was cast Its fate of poverty or woe, Like her's who cried—"We're home at last!"

THE CONTENTED EASY MAN.

We have lived much in the world, mixed With all classes and descriptions, and yet it has been our lot to meet but one thoroughly contented man; and he says "private examples are as good as any."
I take his portrait.

EPHRAIM EASY was the only son of a gentleman farmer, who cultivated his own land. When a child, his quietest disposition was quite remarkable. He never cried for toys, like other children; played no mischievous pranks; and when it was given to him, and slept whenever he could. At school, he never showed the least desire to be distinguished, either in the sports of his fellows, or in his class.

Growing too big for school, and unlike other youngsters, manifesting no disposition to see the world, he was removed to his father's farm, where, taking root, in course of time, he sprouted into a man.
The death of his father, soon after, put him in possession of his estate. Still "He soundly slept the night away, And just did nothing all the day."

But Ephraim's philosophic temper did not at all tend to the improvement of his worldly affairs; his servants did little or nothing, and were paid for it; those who bought his stock paid him less than any one else; his friends plundered, and called him an easy, clever fellow, and admired his contentedness. In the midst of a busy world, Ephraim smoked at his ease.

He had, to be sure, some vague idea that all was not as it should be, but then he found great consolation in the favorite proverb that "when things come to the worst they usually mend." A few more years, and a bad harvest put Ephraim's proverb to the test: things came to the worst, but unfortunately did not mend; his land went off under the hammer; he could not work and so went to the poor-house. If this touched any dormant spark of pride, it was soon over; and poor Ephraim is still perfectly content! and all his cares and all his toils are summed up in Prior's two lines—

"He eats, and drinks, and sleeps—wiser then?"

"Why eats, and drinks, and sleeps again?" Surely, there are many degrees of happiness superior to such a state.—Newark Daily Advertiser.

PROSPECTUS

For the continuation of the CARROLL FREE-PRESS.

THE interest of William Johnston, Esq., in this establishment, having been transferred to John Christy, the Free Press will in future be conducted by PEARCE & CHRISTY. The political complexion of this paper will not be changed —the editors being firm in their determination to preserve its neutral character.

The transfer from Mr Johnston to Christy, has been made with the hope of ensuring the continuation of a newspaper in Carrollton: And with this view, the editors appeal to the people of the county for a patronage equal to the merits and importance of their enterprise. One of the editors being a practical printer, and having determined to devote his time exclusively to the interest of the paper, it is confidently hoped that, with a reasonable increase of their subscription list, the Carroll Free Press may be continued to the mutual advantage of both subscribers & publishers.

Of the convenience and necessity of a public Journal, published at the county seat, every citizen of the county must be convinced; and the editor trusts that, the people of Carroll will sustain them in their efforts to promote public good, and to secure an honest maintenance.

TERMS.—The Free Press will be published every Friday morning, at Two Dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance. If payment be delayed until after the end of the year, $2 50 will be required. But as payment in advance is for the interest of all parties, this mode is respectfully recommended.

rate. All communications addressed to the Editors must be post paid.

1 OR 2 HORSE POWER.

THE undersigned take this method of making known to the farmers of Carroll and Tuscarawas counties, that they have purchased the right to use and vend S Allen's new patent Threshing Machine. The right for Carroll county is owned by Daniel Vanhorn, John Dunlap and Jacob Vanhorn, of Lee township.
The right for Tuscarawas county is owned by Joseph Wolff, of said Lee township, in Carroll county. This Machine may be seen in operation, at any time, at the residence of Capt. John Cassil, one mile from Carrollton; or at the residence of Daniel Vanhorn, of Lee Tp. It is portable and convenient, and may be moved from place to place, easily, in a common farm wagon with two horses.—It can be kept in successful operation by the power of one or two horses and four or five hands. Those who have seen it in operation acknowledge that it will hull more cloverseed—thresh more Wheat, Rye and Oats, than any other machine in the West. The undersigned respectfully ask Farmers to give it a fair trial; and they are satisfied, it will soon be gener-

French Burr Mill Stones.—We ask the attention of the public generally, and especially of that portion which is engaged in the Flouring Business, to the certificates of many millers, and proprietors of mills, as to the excellence of the Stones manufactured by Mr John Rhey. Many of the signers to this certificate are known to us to be men of standing, judgment in their business, and veracity.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

The undersigned, manufacturer of Pat-tent Bolting Cloths, being informed by several parties, whose orders they are in the habit of executing, that Bolting Cloths, manufactured abroad, and bearing no mark or stamp, are imported into the U. States of North America, and there marked and stamped, so as to imitate the stamp of the Anchor Manufactory—and that the said Bolting Cloths are there imposed upon the public for Dutch Cloths—they feel it incumbent on them to warn the American dealers in the article against this scandalous fraud and base counterfeit, both in the interest of the peddlers themselves, and of the undersigned, who are desirous of maintaining the long established repute and fame of the Dutch Cloths, and in particular of his own manufactory, the superiority of which is sufficiently acknowledged by this unprincipled imitation.

In order to guard against further deception, the American dealers are particularly requested to pay attention to the stamps marks, and mode of packing, used in their manufactory, as a test of the genuin-ness of their Cloths—and they hereby give the assurance that no cloths ever were, nor never shall, be delivered from their factories, without being provided with their customary and well known proofs of genuineness.
